BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1901.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The pay train will be down today.

Corn is selling at 65 cents from the stores.

Baled hay is in great demand at $12 per ton from store.

Horn, to the wife of Mr. W. Brooks, a fine boy, Sunday morning, 81 pounds.

The goods at the Bankrupt store must be sold. Once at once if you want bargains.

Money made is money saved. The Bankrupt store will do the latter, if you take trade.

Samuel Carson died at his home in this city last Wednesday morning of consumption.

Sugar, coffee, flour, meat, canned goods, etc., are down in prices at the Bankrupt House.

All persons indebted to J. E. Keith & Son, will please come forward and settle their accounts.

Typhoid fever is raging at Whitesville. Several deaths have occurred there recently from it.

Jimmy Miller left on the Mary Houston Saturday night for the South with 15 head of horses.

The brick plant is the all-absorbing topic. Most every fellow you meet has a brick in his hat.

Mr. Nat Tucker, of Stephentown, was in the city Friday and renewed his subscription to the News.

John and Thos. Byrnes sold to B. F. Clarkson last week one six-year-old mare 15 hands high for $125 cash.

Mrs. W. K. Penrod returned Thursday from a protracted visit to her father in Texas, very much improved in health.

The Cincinnati Coughing Company will erect at once a steam slave bucket and equalizer at the Short line depot this city.

Edward Gregory left Monday for Henderson, where he has accepted a position on the Henderson Journal as general agent.

Mr. John A. Barry, of Concordia, spent several days in this city last week. He thinks of locating here if he can find a suitable place.

R. C. Mattingly sold a hind of old lead tobacco in Louisville yesterday for $7.40 per hundred. He says it ought to have brought $15.

Mr. J. H. Moorman, manager of the Bankrupt store, will take pleasure in furnishing you with all your family supplies at very low rates.

W. H. Bowmer returned from Henderson Sunday night. He says the news of Hamilton & Co. is starting off with a nice business.

"The Young Ladies' S. S. Society," will give a candy-pulling at Fisher's Hall, Friday night, the proceeds to be applied to missionary purposes.

Dr. W. B. White and his son, Oliver, were here several days last week. It is quite probable that the doctor will move back to his old home in the spring.

It is due Mr. A. R. Fisher, whose name appears in the raised list, to say that his property was listed at $7,500, but by some mistake the assessor put it down at $7,500. A block of $82,000 worth of Gold Fortuna gas stock changed hands here last week. Mr. Amel Oelze was the purchaser. He declined to give the price paid for it.

Mr. Fallon, Assistant State Lecturer for the F. M. B. A., will deliver a lecture at the school house in Holt's Bottom, next Saturday, at 2 o'clock p. m. in the interest of the "Lancet" organization. All interested in the success of the order are requested to be present.

PERSONAL.

Ell E. Miller was tried before Mayor Pierce, Tuesday on the charge of larceny.

He was adjourned a lunatic, and ordered to be taken to the Aschmeyer asylum on Wednesday.

Dr. W. A. Graham, of Southfield, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. W. P. Graham. Dr. Graham is just from the American Eclectic Medical College, of Cincinnati, where he has just graduated.

Mr. J. C. Loomis, of Louisville, left Monday evening, after having completed the arrangements for the establishment of works for the manufacture of vitrolite, of paying brick at this city.

A $50,000 brick plant, turning out 125,000 paving brick per day that are worth on the market from $10 to $12 per thousand, is no little thing, thank you. It means work for all who are idle.

Dr. Addison is getting along as well as could be expected with his broken leg. The only thing that troubles him is the confinement. He hopes to be out on crutches in a few days.

There is no merchant, says the Roady (Pa.) Eagle, who does not desire to increase his business. The way to do this is to let the world of shoppers know what inducements you are holding out to them by advertisement.

Hon. D. H. Murray says the water works are not dead. He is expecting men here every day to look over the grounds and make estimates. He hasn't any doubt but what they will be in operation before another week.

The Breckenridge Company has built a new office and put in a fifty ton scale recently. The brick cottages are also being repaired for rent. It is reported that they had an offer of $300 per acre for their vacant land lying in the Ogles by addition and refused it.

Mr. Henry W. Herndon has been made manager of the old and reliable firm of L. Herndon & Co., produce and commission merchants, Louisville, where he will be found at all times ready and anxious to serve his old patrons.

He guarantees good prices, and prompt returns on all consignments. Shippers will please remember him when shipping their produce to Louisville.

A very brilliant and enjoyable dance at Fisher's Hall last Friday evening was the society event of the week. In addition to a number of the young ladies and gentlemen best known in the social affairs of the city, the occasion was also enlivened by the presence of a large number of young ladies, who were visiting here, among whom were Miss Lila Adams, of Lewisport, and Miss Lena Adams, of Owensboro, and Miss Fannie Duncan, of Owensboro.

K. K. K. says that he has given a good deal of thought to jails and prisons from the time of Joseph to the present, and that the contemplated jail in Henderson is the only sane jail he ever heard of that only had sixteen yards of stone above the foundation.

Boyd Bros. are not only practical millers, but advertisers as well. They do business in a plain, straight-forward way, and are not afraid to let the world know it. When you visit their mill you know before-hand just what you can do—that is, if you take the News, and read their advertisement.

Mr. G. P. Nager, the popular proprietor of the Nager House, has rented the rooms recently vacated by Mr. G. W. Shorn. They will be repaired and fitted up to accommodate his large and increasing trade. The Nager House is centrally located, and convenient to the traveling public, who will appreciate the facilities.

The News has added to its job department a new $50 paper cutter, perforating machine and a binder, making the facilities in this department for turning out plain, fancy and artistic commercial printing inferior to no other outside of Louisville. The very large increase of the business of this department during the last year shows that the work is good, and that we are able to handle cases of printing of any magnitude.

The skating tournament at the rink on Monday night was a well attended and highly enjoyable affair. Of the seventy-five present, many participated in the exercises. This amusement has regained its former popularity, and the pleasure-loving public of Cloverport seem to appreciate the efforts of Mr. Pierce to provide for them a suitable pastime. Enterprise in this direction is as commendable and worthy of the support and patronage of the people as that of industrial and material development. The skating tournament will recur on Friday next, and an equally pleasant time is anticipated. The admission fee is ten cents for gentlemen, and ladies free. Skates extra. Young ladies will have opportunity to make private terms for practice between regular evenings.

THE ONLY PLACE

Where you can buy Louisville - manufactured Clothing — "our own" make — for less money than you can buy Eastern-made trash elsewhere, is at

JULIUS WINTER & CO.

Cor. Third and Market, LOUISVILLE, KY.

With good news for our CUSTOMERS AGAIN.

We are glad to announce the Oliver Chilled Plow Co's great reduction of prices, so that now we can sell you the No. 20, that was formerly $10.50 at $9.00; and No. 19, that was $10.00 at $8.50; and 13, formerly $9.00 now $8.00.

Also the one Horse Plow reduced from $5.00 to $3.50. This is the best chilled plow in the world, there is no plow factory but what tries to imitate the Oliver, but none have ever equalled them. The reduction in prices are not only in the plows, but in all of their repairs.

We will carry this season a large line of all kinds of

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.

Our line of Steel Plows is complete, having in stock the well known Iron and Wood Beam Brinley and Avery Plow, which for strength have no superior.

We would call your attention to the light draft Owensboro Wagon which is excelled by none. We also carry the celebrated Studelaker Wagon, which is known the world over. Give us a call and examine prices before buying elsewhere.
